

KWANZAA AND THE CELEBRATION OF IMANI – FAITH!

Posted on January 5, 2023 by NNPA World News Aggregator

The sanctuary at Abyssinian Missionary Baptist Church, 3890 Millbranch Rd., overflowed with celebrants of Imani (faith) – the concluding principle of the seven-day observation of Kwanzaa – on New Year’s afternoon. Founded by Dr. Maulana Karenga in 1966 during the aftermath of the Watts riot, the African-American holiday annually is embraced as an opportunity for [...]

The post Kwanzaa and the celebration of Imani – faith! first appeared on BlackPressUSA.

The post Kwanzaa and the celebration of Imani – faith! first appeared on Post News Group.

Categories: #NNPA BlackPress, Black News, Community, Equity, Featured, Featured, Lee Eric Smith, Lifestyle, National, New Tri-State Defender, News, NNPA, NNPA Newswire

Tags: #NNPA BlackPress, 1966, annually, article, celebration, church, Community, culture, embraced, faith, featured, Lee Eric Smith, Lifestyle, National, New Tri-State Defender, News, NNPA Newswire, opportunity, Sanctuary

The sanctuary at Abyssinian Missionary Baptist Church, 3890 Millbranch Rd., overflowed with celebrants of Imani (faith) – the concluding principle of the seven-day observation of Kwanzaa – on New Year's afternoon. Founded by Dr. Maulana Karenga in 1966 during the aftermath of the Watts riot, the African-American holiday annually is embraced as an opportunity for This article originally appeared in the New Tri-State Defender

The post Kwanzaa and the celebration of Imani – faith! first appeared on BlackPressUSA.

The post Kwanzaa and the celebration of Imani – faith! first appeared on Post News Group.

There are no comments yet.